Every year at the University of Mary Washington, new and exciting things happen to the campus and everyone who is lucky enough to walk onto the historic red bricks of campus walk. Riding the wave off an eventful Centennial year, the campus saw many new students, the inauguration of its first female president, a few notorious faculty members leave the campus, the inauguration of the first African-American President of the United States who also visited the campus, and the 2007-2009 year was nothing short of extraordinary, as UMW is certainly the central hub for fresh news in the Fredericksburg and surrounding region.

President

A New Era

by. Michelle Esch

On July 1, 2008, Judy G. Hample was inaugurated as the eighth president of UMW. Dr. Hample is the first woman president that UMW has ever seen and the third president in as many years. She comes to UMW from Pennsylvania's public university system where she was chancellor, prior to which she was chancellor at the State University of Florida where she oversaw 40,000 employees and an annual operating budget of $5.2 billion.

Dr. Hample has over 20 years of campus experience as a faculty member and academic administrator. The University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana was her first faculty appointment, while her first administrative appointments were at Western Illinois University. She was also dean at Emporia State University, dean of Indiana State University and senior vice president at University of Toledo in Ohio.

Dr. Hample has published numerous scholarly articles and presented research findings in history and communication. She has also been invited to make many presentations before state, regional and national associations on topics including leadership, management, accountability, and performance budgeting.

Dr. Hample earned her Bachelor of Arts from David Lipscomb University in Tennessee, and both her master's and doctoral degrees in communication are from The Ohio State University.

ORIENTATION

Welcome to UMW!

by Michelle Esch

When new student orientation comes around every boiling hot August, it is met with both excitement and fear. The new freshmen are happy to be out on their own, but scared about their new demanding lifestyle. Orientation gives the freshmen a chance to meet others, gain new insights into Mary Wash, and see the campus without any upperclassmen around. Orientation Leaders (OLs) help make everyone feel welcome through fun, games, and interactive opportunities. Also, during (and before) orientation, the Resident Assistants (RAs) welcome everyone back to campus by readying the dorms for the incoming students. Some RAs are even OLs, what a tough job!

OSACS funds and plans orientation every fall and spring so that no one is left out of the experience. Joe Mollo, the Director of OSACS, is constantly visible during the orientation week, offering help to the OLs, directing lost freshmen to where they should be, and smiling at everyone. Orientation is a great time and everyone is always grateful for the experience it gives them.

OBAMA-RAMA

Democrats at UMW

by, Michelle Esch

"Obama was there, Biden was there, I was there. UMW '08"

On September 27, Democratic Presidential hopeful Barack Obama and Vice-President hopeful Joe Biden visited UMW and over 26,000 people showed up to support the blue side of politics. Citing much from the previous night's debate with Republican Presidential hopeful, John McCain, Obama "portrayed rival Republican John McCain as out of touch with average Americans and supportive of economic policies that brought on the current banking crisis. Obama focused his remarks primarily on the economy, and was sharply critical of McCain. Obama and Biden both said McCain never mentioned the middle class or the working class. "You heard John McCain make the case for the policies that got us into this mess," Obama said. "John McCain had a lot to say about me. But he had nothing to say about you." He said McCain's statement last week that the "fundamentals of the economy are strong," which McCain has said was intended to mean American workers, was no misstatement. "He didn't just make a mistake," Obama said. "He revealed an out-of-touch philosophy." He proposes a tax plan he said will reduce taxes for 95 percent of Americans, and also touched briefly on plans to raise teacher pay, make college more affordable, and provide health care for everyone. "We need a president who will fight for the middle class every single day." He spoke also of President George Bush's proposal to use $700 billion in government money to help bail out troubled financial institutions. Obama said he will not support a "blank check" for banks, nor vote for a bailout package that has no conditions or oversight. "If the American people are being asked to provide a solution you've got a right to make sure your tax dollars are protected," Obama said. He also said the plan must include provisions to help homeowners, and not contain excessive compensation for CEOs. "I will not allow this plan to become a welfare [plan] for Wall Street executives," he said." (Quotes taken from Chelyen Davis' Free Lance Star article.)

SARAH PALIN

Republicans in F'burg

by, Michelle Esch

Sarah Palin visited Fredericksburg on her second stop when she swept through Virginia on October 27. Her crowd of 6,000 McCain supporters filled Hurkamp Park, all wearing red in order to show their support of keeping Virginia Republican. Palin's husband, Todd, joined his wife on the trip through Virginia. Former governor and current Senate candidate Jim Gilmore spoke for about 45 minutes prior to Palin's arrival, welcoming her to our fair city and getting the Fredericksburg crowd ready for the Vice-President hopeful.

Chelyen Davis, of Fredericksburg.com, an online news source, wrote this during Palin's speech: "Republican vice-presidential candidate Sarah Palin warned a cold but cheering crowd here today that Democratic candidate Barack Obama's talk of "spreading the wealth" is socialism and that the Democrat has "an ideological commitment to higher taxes. Senator Obama says he wants to spread the wealth," Palin said. "Today is not the time to experiment with socialism ... His plan to redistribute wealth punishes hard work, it will stifle creativity. With a week to go before the election, Palin focused much of her speech on the economy and taxes, saying that she and presidential candidate John McCain will stimulate the economy by cutting taxes on people and businesses. We will bring tax relief to every American and every business," Palin said. "We need someone with a bold and free and fair plan of action to get this country moving in the right direction ... Our economic plan is a pro-growth, pro-private sector agenda."

HOMECOMING

Flo Bots!?

by. Michelle Esch

Homecoming started on October 19 and lasted until October 25 this year. The week included the annual soccer, volleyball, and rugby games on Saturday, as well as the fireworks display and concert following. UMW students were especially happy about this year's performer as it was the new break-out band, Flo Bots. The games included women's rugby versus UMW alumni, men's rugby versus VCU, women's volleyball against Lynchburg College, women's soccer versus Stevenson University, and men's soccer versus Salisbury University. Also, this year featured the UMW police cracking down on "pre-gaming" before the sporting events, as many unruly students were thrown out of the game for having too much fun. The bonfire on Friday night had to be rescheduled due to rain.

Study

Abroad

Friends Don't Let Friends Stay in the States

by, Michelle Esch

Throughout the year, there are many different times that UMW students are given the opportunity to explore the widely diverse world of Study Abroad, often from people talking to them outside the Nest. On February 19, a Study Abroad fair was given in the Great Hall to attract students and give them more information on studying wherever they may want to go. Liaisons for schools from all over the world had tables set up, giving brochures to students interested in their university. Such schools and businesses included Academic Programs International (API), Global Learning Semesters, University College Cork in Ireland, Cultural Experience Abroad (CEA), Lexia, Peace Corps, The American Business School in Paris, and many more! UMW languages also had a hand in the fair, as they had their own tables set up, generally run by students, that gave information from a student perspective. Students who entered Great Hall were immediately greeted, given brochures, and a bag to hold their goodies in. OSACS gave away free popcorn, too.

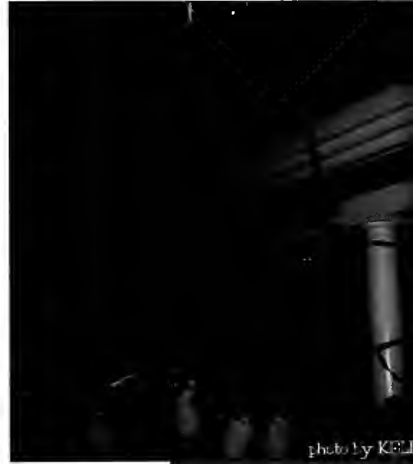

Halloween

BOO!!

by, Michelle Esch

Halloween, a spooky time of year, fell on a Friday, much to the delight of just about every UMW student on campus. For those that love to go trick-or-treating, many students found Sunken Dr. to be the perfect place to go knocking door to door. Others, found the Great Hall, with OSACS's Halloween set-up, to be a great place to socialize with their friends. From 8pm to midnight, students were able to enjoy bobbing for apples, the "guess what it is?" game, a fortune teller, a costume contest, and many more games. Overall, a successful time of year for everyone involved at OSACS.

Presidential

Obama by a Landslide

by, Michelle Esch

On November 4, millions flocked to the polls to support their favorite presidential candidate. Throughout the day, everyone watched as McCain and Obama vied for the lead. By the end of the day, it was a clear win. Obama: 365, McCain: 173. 131.2 million voters were said to have voted in this highly controversial presidential race. African American voters increased from 11.1% in the 2004 elections, to 13% in 2008. On the historical November 4th, Obama was named President-Elect, and on January 20, 2009, he was named the 44th President of the United States.

COAR's activities

by Michelle Esch

On Sunday October 26, COAR sponsored their annual Make-A-Difference day. With the day falling so close to Halloween, the members of COAR made a Haunted Helpers Fall Festival, open to the public and children ages 2 to 12 in the Great Hall. Everyone was invited to dress up in Halloween costumes, go trick-or-treating in the residence halls and participate in small service projects.

COAR does not just put on "Make a Difference Day," but all throughout the year, COAR works hard to change the lives of many people. These events include blood drives, Alternative Spring Break, the Spring Egg hunt, Haunted Helpers, and Act! Speak! Build!

Rockt

For a Good Cause

by Michelle Esch

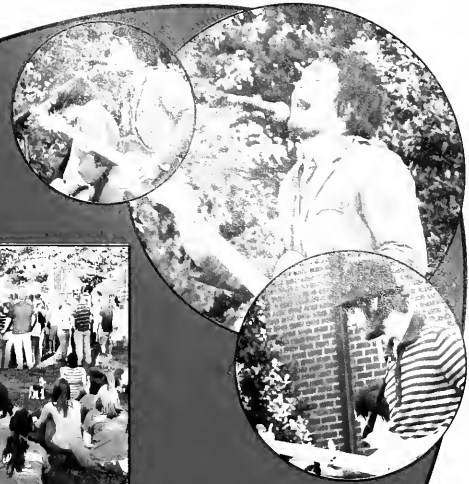

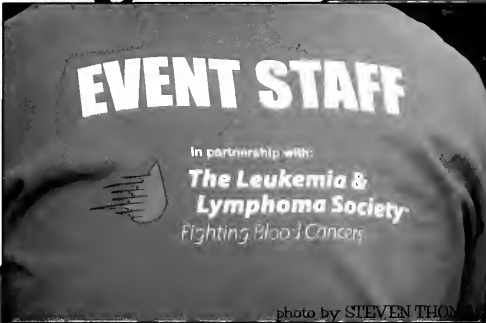

On Friday October 3, UMW and Giant Productions joined with the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society for Rocktoberfest 2008. This year's concert was given in memory of 20-year old UMW student Chris Morawetz, who died last year of lymphoma. This year, The Cab opened for The Spill Canvas, while Allman's BBQ of Fredericksburg, catered the event. For every dollar donated to the cause, two were matched by an outside party to raise money to help find a cure for the disease.

The Spill Canvas is a four-man band from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, which has an alternative sound comparable to Fall Out Boy and Panic! at the Disco. Their first album debuted in 2004, and since then, the band has toured with Mae and The Plain White T's, who made their own appearance on the UMW campus last year at Homecoming.

Many made it out to Ball Circle to crowd around the stage and rock out to The Cab and The Spill Canvas' music: it was deemed a success.

"Love Lives On"

Now that your gone
I will always long
To feel you by my side
The waves of sadness I will ride
Our commitment I'll continue to abide
My heart is broken and will never mend
I will continue to love you to the end

I pray we'll be together again some day
I'll keep my wanting to join you now at bay
There must be a purpose as to why I'm still here
God has his reasons, to us not clear
Watch over me as I get through each day
Listen to me as I continually say
'I love you' my friend with all of my heart
It will continue to grow even though we're apart

Where you are now is a beautiful place
More so now with your lovely face
When the sun is out and shining bright
Made possible by your smile, which is the light
I will feel the warmth that wraps all around me
With this blanket of love you are showing me
That you are gone but not far away
Always here, forever you'll stay

In Virginia!?

by. Michelle Esch

Weather in Virginia is known for being unpredictable. At UMW, we had barely any snow last Fall semester, though the temperatures were definitely low enough. Early this semester brought enough snow for a half day of cancelled classes on a Tuesday in January, and then eight inches of snow covered Fredericksburg over Spring Break. While the high temperatures have reached eighty-one degrees in March, Groundhog Day forecasted six more weeks of Winter weather.

MLK Jr.

Celebration

Beloved Community

by Michelle Esch

This year, the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was celebrated over a week of events devoted to the celebration of MLK's life sponsored by the Multicultural Center. Starting January 14th, there was a Civil Rights Speech at the James Farmer Memorial bust, then a Unity March starting at Jepson, followed by a Celebration Ceremony featuring Dwight Jones, Virginia delegate, minister, activist, and community leader at Dodd Auditorium, and concluding with a Soul Food dinner at Seacobeck. January 15th brought about the ACDCV Program in the Red Room, then the MLK-Campus Wide Service Program challenge on Saturday. On Sunday, there was an Interfaith Service sponsored by the Jewish Student Association, and Monday brought a day of no classes along with the "Civil Rights & Civil Wrongs" oratorical contest coordinated with the Speaking Center. Concluding the week was a film and discussion facilitated by Dean Cedric Rucker.

Victorian

Manifest Destiny

by Michelle Esch

This year, the annual Victorian Ball was held on the 31st of January from seven to 11pm in the Great Hall. The theme was "Manifest Destiny" and the event was held by the UMW Historic Preservation Club. Attendees were encouraged to wear period style dress, but any sort of formal wear was acceptable. For those not having any formal wear, the Fantasy Show in downtown Fredericksburg was the place to go so that attendees could rent clothing. Dance lessons were even more strongly encouraged than clothing and the club prepared for people not knowing dances by holding dance lessons the morning of the dance from ten to noon.

On the Facebook event wall, Morgan Riley suggested ten new ideas for period clothing, for those "tired of dressing up as a civil war soldier or southern belle." The characters suggested included, Oscar Wilde, Annie Oakley, Civil War officers, Mark Twain ("nothing like a bit of sass and wit to show us what the Gilded Age really is") and number one, Queen Victoria herself.

Countdown

Congrats Seniors!

by Michelle Esch

Senior Countdown, a night sponsored by Class Council, was a magnificent success. With poker, blackjack, and other such Las Vegas Casino games, the soon-to-be-graduated seniors had a wonderful time. An oxygen bar sat at the very back, while two large projection screens featured the music videos of the very loud music that was playing. Everyone was dressed to the nines in suits, ties, dresses and very high heels. Fake money was awarded to winners at tables, which they in turn used for bidding at a fake auction. The auctioneer was Hassan Abdelhalim. Black curtains surrounded the Great Hall's usually stark white sides, and with the lights turned low, the night was a lot of fun. Joe Mollo, director of OSACS, attended the event, as well as Dean Rucker.

Pranks, Rings, & Fun

by, Michelle Esch

Every year, the Seniors prank the Juniors during Junior Ring Week. It is a fun filled week in March, full of pranks, a Relaxation Night, Junior only activities, Scavenger Hunt, Balloon Rides and more. It all culminates in the Junior Ring Ceremony on Friday and the Junior Ring Ball on Saturday. Class Council outdid themselves this year as they handed out teal JUNIOR RING WEEK t-shirts, massages and stress relievers during Relaxation Night in the Red Room, and Hot Air Balloon Rides. Many cars and dorm rooms were the subject of pranks, while a few Class Council members were actually covered in food while blindfolded. The Hot Air Balloon Rides were rescheduled into April due to heavy rains, but this did not stop the Juniors from enjoying their week. President Hample handed out rings from Balfour during the ring ceremony on Friday after an hour of thoughtful speeches.

UMW

The beat goes on

by Michelle Esch

UMW is definitely not mute when it comes to music on campus. Many weekends of the school year feature great music at no price. Homecoming weekend, Rocktoberfest, and Devil-Goat day all feature UMW student musicians and those famous people too. Separate concerts for solo musicians are held in Dodd Auditorium, while orchestra concerts are held there also. Everyone can be pleased with the music at UMW as we have had chamber music, orchestra, rap, hip/hop, and country.

Mr. UMW

Mr. Jefferson won!

by, Michelle Esch

Every year, UMW holds a very special "beauty" competition: Mr. UMW. A man from each hall (with stand ins for Ball Hall and Virginia Hall) is elected by Hall Council and their dorm peers to compete. The men must have a talent, must have a sense of humor, and must be able to dance to anything the choreographer asks them to do (note: they do not have to dance well). As usual, the turnout for the competition was great with many men and women supporting their hall or favorite man.

After the first dance, which was a gyrating booty dance, talent, "formal wear," and the top twelve were named. Mr. Jefferson, Mr. Commuter, Mr. Arrington, Mr. Bushnell, Mr. Framar, and Mr. Mason were six of the final twelve.

At the end, after much laughter and hysterics, a young Mr. Jefferson was named "Mr. UMW" with bragging rights and the title for the year. Congratulations on your hard work!

Taste of Asia

Subtitle by, Michelle Esch

"A celebration of Asian culture. Taste of Asia is one of the more well-known events at the University of Mary Washington. Held during Asian Cultural Week in November, Taste of Asia educates the community about the different aspects of Asian society and the different cultures and lifestyles represented therein. Complete with a fashion show, dance performances, and a variety of ethnic food, the event provides an inviting and festive atmosphere. The Asian Student Association works closely with other student organizations and local businesses to plan the much anticipated program." (Multicultural Center Website)

This year's Taste of Asia, a part of the Cultural Awareness Series through the Multicultural Center, was a huge success. The Asian Student Association charged $3 per entrant, $1 for students or one canned good for donation. The ladies (and some gentlemen!) put on a fantastic fashion show that showed the different types of Asian formal wear, the UMW Breakers performed, and the food was fabulous! Many people came to the event and helped support ASA and the Multicultural Center.

The Cultural Awareness Series should be attended by everyone because, "The James Farmer Multicultural Center strives to honor the late Dr. James L. Farmer and keep his legacy alive. Dr. Farmer was a dynamic civil rights leader and advocate for social change, and we hope that the Cultural Awareness Series helps members of the Mary Washington family and surrounding community appreciate all aspects of diversity."

Spring

Dinner Cruise

by Michelle Esch

This year's Spring Formal was definitely an eventful night full of dancing, laughter, good friends and good music. Anyone was allowed to attend the formal held on a dinner cruise boat on the Potomac River in May. The students took a chartered bus up to the Washington DC area, floated down the river during sunset, and took the same bus back home in the wee hours of the morning. There was a limited number of tickets available, so the line to procure these tickets was long and people waited for hours outside the Nest to get their hands on them.

Multicultural Fair

Many Cultures & Colors

by Michelle Esch

This year's Multicultural Fair took place on Saturday April 5, 2009. The fair, in its 18th annual year, took place on Ball Circle and along Campus Walk. It presented 15 cultures from around the world, with performances by Canadian songwriter and musician Ebony Tay, a three-piece reggae band Alliens, the Celtic musicians Sean Grace Consort, the Ezibu Muntu African Dance Company and the Latin musical group Solazo.

Several UMW clubs also performed including Jazz Ensemble, the Flute Ensemble, the Eagle Pipe Band and the Hand Percussion Club, with the addition of the UMW Breakers, the Swing Dance Club, and the Latin Dance Club.

The James Farmer Multicultural Center posted this brief introduction to the fair on their website, "The Multicultural Fair generally attracts 3,000 to 4,000 people each year, and exemplifies the University of Mary Washington's commitment to enhancing multicultural awareness. Typically held in early April, the Fair provides an entire day devoted to multicultural entertainment, children's activities, international and American food, and ethnic craft vendors. Each year the Multicultural Student Affairs and James Farmer Multicultural Center work closely with UMW student organizations, faculty and staff in planning festivities. The University also partners with the greater Fredericksburg community, which plays an integral role in successfully implementing the fair."

Food, and craft areas with ethnic, multicultural or international foods and products were offered. Featured foods included traditional American festival fare, as well as Hispanic, Thai and Caribbean foods.

Devil-C

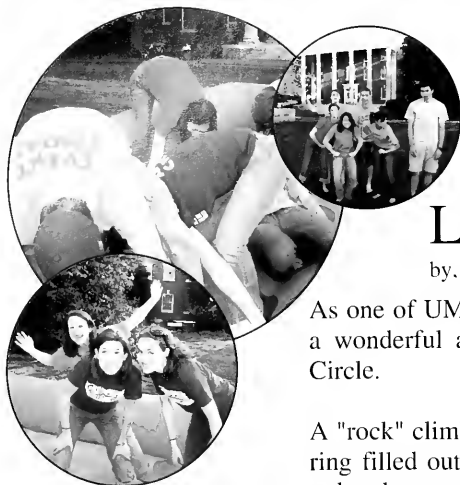

Let the competitions begin!

by. Michelle Esch

As one of UMW's most unique and lasting traditions, Devil-Goat Day is a wonderful afternoon filled with friendly class competitions on Ball Circle.

A "rock" climbing wall, giant Twister pad, obstacle course, and "boxing" ring filled out this year's activities along with the ever popular shirts in red and green with a devil and goat on them, respectively. Class Council also provided the students with good music and refreshing food.

People were lining up to get a tee shirt as early as 1 o'clock because as the upperclassmen know, the shirts do not last long. By the start of the festivities, a line could be seen as far along campus walk as the Nest.

This year, Students Helping Honduras decided to try something different. Instead of their usual Walk-A-Thon that attracts thousands each year, they held a Volleyball Tournament that many students attended. Donations were welcomed and many different teams signed up to partake in the event. While playing, the students listened to live music from a UMW band and got their refreshments from the club people. Hopefully next year this event will be just as big, or even bigger. People will just have to make sure they remember their sunscreen as the April day was very warm and sunny.

Theme Ho

A Bit of Diversity

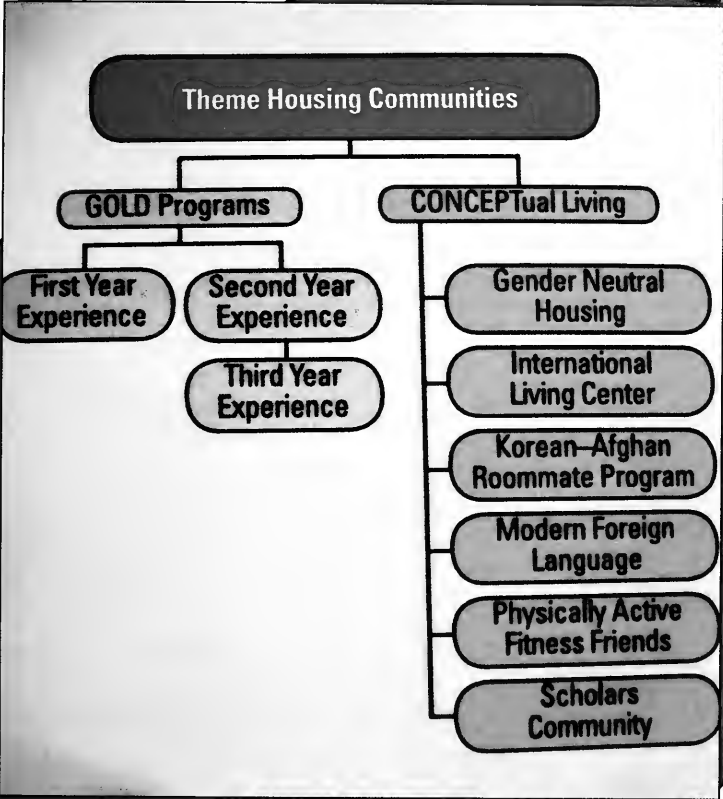

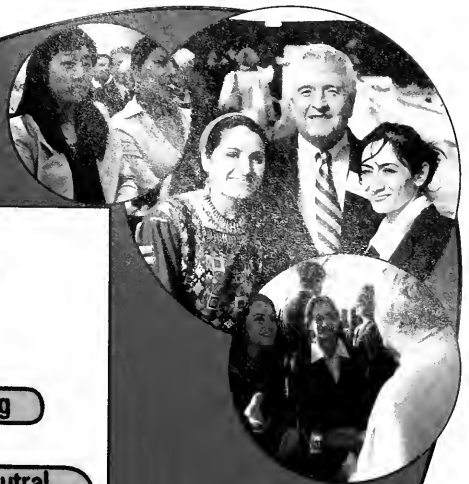

by, Michelle Esch

"Theme Housing Communities promote a direct link between students' residential, academic, and extracurricular life. They are designed to provide students who have common educational goals or common extracurricular interests the opportunity to live together in on-campus housing. These communities foster faculty/residential interaction that enhances students' intellectual and personal growth outside the classroom.

Studies show that students who live in theme housing communities are more involved in programs on and off campus and perform better academically than students who do not live in theme housing communities. Participants also find increased opportunities to make lifelong friends. Theme housing communities benefit the University community by increasing student retention." (from brochure on THC)

This year, the Grad Ball 2009 was held on May 7 in the Great Hall and on Palmieri Plaza. Only the graduates were encouraged to attend, however many other classes attended as guests of the graduates. 1,125 students graduated from the University of Mary Washington on May 9, 2009 during its 98th commencement ceremony. UMW awarded 53 Master of Business Administration degrees, 101 Master of Education degrees, 5 Master of Science in Management Information Systems, 37 Master of Science in Elementary Education degrees, 403 Bachelor of Arts degrees, 51 Bachelor of Liberal Studies degrees, 60 Bachelor of Professional Studies degrees and 415 Bachelor of Science degrees.

Virginia First Lady Anne Holton was the commencement speaker.

Graduates lined up at Jefferson Square at 8:15am in their full regalia and began their historic last walk down Campus Walk. The Walk was lined with friends and family applauding and screaming for their favorite graduate.

The day was warm but pleasant, a nice change from last year's rain.

Renovations

Construction Days

by, Michelle Esch

It seems as if the construction and renovations for a better UMW will never cease. Last year, the campus was infiltrated by trailers so that Lee could be built up and redecorated on the inside. Even though it was a great hindrance, waiting for the new Lee Hall was worth the wait. The bookstore is fabulous with plenty of room for textbooks, clothing, dorm room supplies, and food. The carpet even has little eagles in it! Downstairs, the Registrar, Student Accounts, and more are lined up in one neat row, so no more climbing all over GW looking for the right office. Also, Admissions has a beautiful new office for greeting prospective students, and while everyone is sad that the ballroom is no more, the people in charge did do a wonderful job in trying to sustain the aura that we are used to with open ceilings and the same banners as before hanging from the gorgeous beams.

New signs were also put up around the campus to aide new students and visitors in finding the right Hall. The infamous fence that was put up on College Ave and Williams St is still an annoyance for those living in the apartments, but fewer accidents happened this year, so it is doing its job. A new deck next to the Nest will certainly be attractive to eaters in the Fall as they will be able to enjoy the gorgeous outdoor weather. The new turf field next to the parking garage is a tremendous help to all of the teams at UMW.

Of course, the Eagle Village construction for phase I started with a bang in the spring as students watched Roses, Einstein's and other stores get torn down. More recently, the initial towers were erected and stand proof that UMW moves fast with construction. Hopefully Eagle Village will be everything it is hyped up to be.

Monroe Hall started renovations soon after the conclusion of graduation in May.

Clubs

ICA

by, Kelly Miralaz

The Inter-Club Association is arguably one of the most important clubs at Mary Washington. The ICA is responsible for reviewing club constitutions and ensuring that all clubs and organizations follow University policy. This means that any club that is officially recognized by the OSACS office is a part of the ICA. As well as regulating existing clubs, the ICA is also responsible for reviewing and determining whether new clubs will be recognized as official by the University.

The ICA also provides all clubs with resources that they share. Every club has equal opportunity to take advantage of the supplies that the ICA keeps stocked for promotion purposes. This includes paint and brushes for painting the rock, paint markers and poster board for making signs, and thermal paper and a printer for printing posters.

The ICA is a governing body amongst the clubs that ensures all clubs uphold the ideals of the University and allows for equality and union between the numerous clubs that are officially recognized by the University.

ARH

by, Kelly Miraltes

ARH, or Association of Residence Halls, is a mediator between the Residence Life and OSACS. ARH receives funding from each so that they can host dorm and campus wide activities.

Every spring a president and Executive Board is elected to the ARH for the following year. The next fall, students in each of the sixteen residence halls and Apartment Complex elect their own presidents. These presidents represent their dorm to the Executive Board. ARH as a whole is given funding to divide amongst the dorms, as well as to use for campus wide events.

Some of the notable events that are put on campus wide are a Friday Night Dry each semester, the Powderpuff Football Game in the spring, and the Mr. UMW pageant in the fall.

Residence halls use the money given to them by the ARH to have hall socials and educational activities, and to pay for the activities they sponsor at the Friday Night Dry events.

Honor Council

by, Kelly Miraltes

The University of Mary Washington prides itself on its Honor System. Honor Council is elected to uphold the Honor System, and is one of the longest running and most prestigious organizations on campus, as it is under direct jurisdiction of the Board of Visitors.

Every Spring, a president and class representatives are elected to the Honor Council. Every dorm elects an Honor Contact to act as a liaison between students and members of the Honor Council. Members of Honor Council have a year round responsibility to educate others about the Honor System, investigate Honor accusations, run Honor hearings, and issue Honor sanctions.

The Honor Council can be thanked for the one hundred years of success for the Honor System. By enforcing and punishing those who violate the Honor System, the Honor Council has enabled students to grow and learn in an environment where they are responsible for themselves and others in the University community.

Young Dems

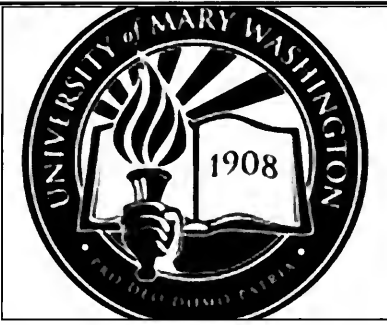

A political organization dedicated to getting liberal-minded youth involved in helping candidates and staying informed. The Young Dems helped bring many political leaders to campus especially Barack Obama in the Fall before he was elected as President of the USA. Rallies are held throughout the year, and many Young Dems can be seen on Campus Walk handing out fliers and keeping the students at UMW informed about politics.

College Republicans

The College Republicans Club purpose is to promote the Republican Party's message to the campus community through meetings, conservative speakers, campaign participation, and outreach efforts. Much like the Young Dems, the College Republicans reach the UMW community on Campus Walk and through rallies. Many of the students involved in the club went to see Sarah Palin when she came to Fredericksburg in the Fall.

The Student Government Association is a forum where students talk about their concerns about campus issues ranging from academics to safety. The members of the SGA also address local, state, and national issues which affect students (for example, VRE parking), and are also the students' link to the administration. Along with these duties, they organize community events to foster school spirit, such as the Homecoming fireworks.

The Judicial Review Board is a student-run organization that investigates violations of community standards on campus, and if necessary, provides educational sanctions to the student found responsible of the violation. The purpose of the JRB is to offer students the opportunity to present their case to an unbiased board of peers when involved in violations of University policy.

YWLP

by, Michelle Esch

The Young Women's Leadership Program is a valuable community outreach program made possible by the dedicated members. The mission of the club is to mentor local girls, serving as Big Sisters, mirroring the Big Brothers, Big Sisters of America program. Members are trained in the beginning of the semester, and then meet weekly with their little sisters. These relationships are important for providing young girls with responsible role models and someone to look up to for when they get older.

Finance Committee

by, Kelly Mirales

The Finance Committee consists of nine students elected during the spring semester of the previous academic year. These student leaders are the lifeline to officially recognized Mary Washington clubs. They are put in charge of all the funding that OSACs receives and determine how it should be allocated amongst the clubs.

Clubs present an estimate of their next year's budget to the Finance Committee in the spring, and the Committee determines how much money each club will be given.

As the year goes on, and clubs plan to host different events, they can set up an appointment with the Committee to present their ideas for their intended event, and ask if they can be given more funding.

The Finance Committee has an important task in voting to decide how to spend the University's money. They have specific guidelines that they follow to ensure that they give out money as fairly as possible and monitor each club's budget to make sure that the money is being well spent.

Senate

by, Kelly Mirales

The Student Senate is comprised of the Senate President, Senate Secretary, Senate Parliamentarian, and residential and commuting Senators. The Senate President is the elected Vice-President of the SGA.

Senate President, Secretary, and Parliamentarian are all appointed during the previous academic year, while elections for Senators are held during the fall of the current academic year. Senators are elected through their respective residence halls, and the number of students residing in each hall determines the number of senators that may be elected.

The Student Senate gives voice to many student issues and is a valuable resource for student organizations that wish to see changes at Mary Washington.

Polemie

by, Michelle Esch

The Polemic was originally created to handle the overflow of op-eds from the Bullet in 1986. It is not a literary and art magazine that accepts various kinds of works including prose, poetry, opinion pieces and artwork.

Appearing in black and white format, the Polemic comes out only at select times throughout the year.

Bullet

by, Kelly Mirales

The Bullet Mary Washington's student-run, award-winning newspaper. The mission of The Bullet is to inform students, faculty, staff, and subscribers of the events on and around the campus, as well as concerns of Mary Washington's student population. The Bullet also serves as a medium for students to voice their opinions via editorials and guest columns. The Bullet is also a way for local advertisers to reach students, faculty, staff, and subscribers. The Bullet is published on Thursdays in both the Fall and Spring semesters. In addition to the printed copies, the bullet is also accessible online. This Spring The Bullet worked with UMWblogs to create their own website, with plans to have stories published there daily.

Aubade

by, Kelly Mirales

Aubade is Mary Washington's review of art and literature. It has been part of campus life since 1971, as a magazine published annually in the Spring. The magazine has changed a lot over the years, but is still essentially the same a place where Mary Washington can showcase the best creative work that students have to offer.

The magazine is divided into three categories: poetry, art, and prose. Each year, a $100 prize is given away for the best work in each category. Students submit their work to Aubade, and then a group of readers decide which works will be published and also which ones will win the prize. Aubade is a great way to be an active member of the creative community on campus, and a great way for other students to discover and have access to these works.

Giant Productions

by, Kelly Miralaz

Giant Productions is a student run organization that is responsible for campus entertainment. Giant is responsible for several of the biggest events on campus throughout the year. This year, they brought in The Spill Canvas and The Cab for the annual Rocktoberfest concert, which was co-sponsored by Class Council and raised money for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. A few weeks later, they brought in The Flobots for Homecoming.

Aside from those major concerts, Giant also hosts several other varieties of entertainment. At the beginning of Fall Semester, Giant brought in two acoustic acts that performed outside the Woodard Campus Center. They also had Brian Brushwood, a bizarre magician, and Tom DeLuca, a hypnotist, come into Dodd Auditorium. For Halloween, Giant paired up with PRISM to bring in The Kinsey Sicks, a Dragapella group.

For the Spring Semester, they hosted a comedy series, bringing five different comedians to the Great Hall throughout the whole semester. After hosting a school wide poll for the Spring Concert, Giant brought in Matt Nathanson.

Radio

by, Kelly Miralles

Once operating out of the attic of Lee Hall, the Woodard Campus Center is now home to WMWC, a student-run campus radio station. The radio station first began in 1946 and was known as "The Mike Club." Since then, there have been significant changes in the format of the station. These days, the radio station has several ways of airing their shows. Students can tune into 91.5 FM, access the webcast, or set their TVs to Channel 3 to watch music videos. In order to appeal to all tastes, the radio station plays a wide variety of music. Some shows are genre based, and others are free form. Students can count on WMWC for guaranteed variety from local country radio stations. WMWC plays eclectic music that ranges from college rock to local music, electronica to hip hop, and much more. In an effort to raise money, as well as clear out an inventory of old records, the radio station crafted bowls from melted vinyl records and sold them in the nest. This was a creative idea that many students found appealing and also helped spread the word about the club. They also set up and played music at Club Carnival in order to promote the station.

Cheap Seats

by, Kelly Miralles

Every weekend, students get the opportunity to see popular movies for just a dollar. Cheap Seats is the club that makes this possible. Each weekend, they show two movies that have yet to be released to DVD. These movies are shown Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights, one at seven, and one at ten. Many students take advantage of seeing these blockbuster hits at such a low price. Before each movie is shown, there are also door prizes, which usually mirror the theme of the movies. Some of the more notable movies brought to campus this year were The Dark Knight, Pineapple Express, and Sex and The City.

Not only does Cheap Seats provide weekly entertainment for low prices, they also host other events. For Halloween, they made a haunted house inside the Great Hall. The next day, they showed a screening of The Rocky Horror Picture Show, where several people dressed up as their favorite characters from the cult classic. In the spring, they hosted an Oscar Party.

Students are grateful to have clubs like Cheap Seats, which provide affordable and fun entertainment.

KELLY MIRALLES

Class

They do it all!

by Kelly Mirales

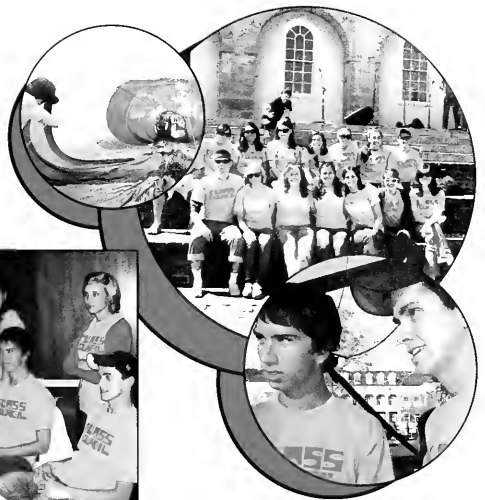

Class Council is one of the most active clubs on campus. They host several annual events that have become long standing traditions here at Mary Washington. To kick off the year, Class Council hosts a Freshman Dance, which provides a great opportunity for new students to meet one another. They also co-sponsor Rocktoberfest with Giant Productions, and this year fed students Allman's Barbeque.

In the fall, they host the annual Lip Sync competition as part of Spirit Week. This is a very popular event where the creativity of the student body is evident. Complete with full costumes and choreography, many take this competition very seriously, while the rest of the student body enjoys the free entertainment. Another big Fall event is Halloween, where the Great Hall is tricked and treated in honor of the holiday.

In the Spring Semester, Class Council hosts the Senior Countdown Casino Night, Junior Ring Week, Grad Ball, and Devil/Goat Day. The Casino Night and Grad Ball are only for seniors, to recognize their achievements. Junior Ring Week honors the juniors, but allows all classes to participate by pranking juniors. Devil/Goat Day is a longstanding tradition that has even and odd year classes "competing" against one another in a day of carnival fun on Ball Circle.

Breakers

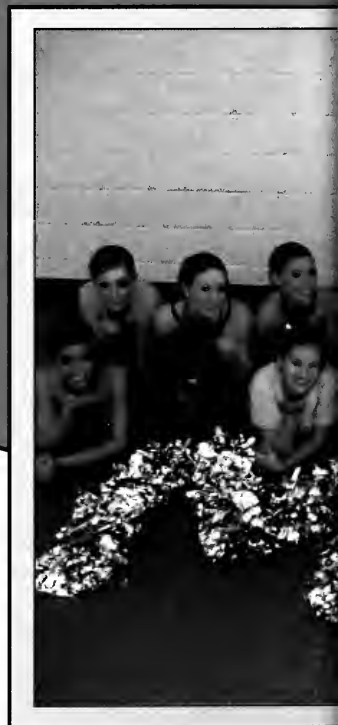

The UMW Breakers are a group of men and women that love to breakdance around campus. They practice weekly in the dance studios in Goodrick and love to show off those hard practices with performances at Multi-Cultural Fair, Taste of Asia and many more times throughout the year. Sporting many bruises and sweating profusely is part of the challenge of breakdancing but the club is open to anyone, even those that have no idea how to stand on their heads with their feet straight up in the air.

PAC

Every semester, Mary Washington's Performing Arts Club holds auditions where talented dancers showcase their abilities. Those who are selected work hard every weekend rehearsing for the big show, which is at the end of each semester. For the past ten years, the Fall Show has always been dedicated to the memory of Eugene Roscoe, a beloved dance professor. This show is traditionally called Eugenius in his honor. This year's Spring Show was called Fear & Fantasy. These shows feature dances choreographed by the talented members of PAC. In addition to the two big shows each semester, PAC has two small shows, which take place halfway throughout the semester and showcase a few of the pieces that will be in the big shows at the end of the semester.

KELLY MIRALES

Dance Team

The Mary Washington Dance Team are fourteen girls who practice routines all year to perform at various events. Most notably, students can see the dance team perform during the half time of the University Men's Basketball games. In addition to these performances, the Dance Team competes at competitions. This March, the Mary Washington Dance Team went to Williamsburg for the Williamsburg Colonial Spirit Championship, where they placed first in their division. The Dance Team also performed at Homecoming, as well as at the Performing Arts Club small show.

Boxing

by, Michelle Esch

Mike Gionfriddo, President of the Boxing Club said this about the strenuous club: "The Boxing Club is in its third year. They meet every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and train working on their cardio and endurance by working on the speed bag, heavy bag, and jump roping. The members often partner up and work on mitts and throw punch combinations. The guys and girls of the club go through a hard boxing workout and practice their boxing skills. The hard work of the team is demonstrated in Fight Night when the individuals exhibit their skills learned all year in the ring as they square off against one another. It is not mandatory to fight in Fight Night nor is it mandatory to spar. The Boxing Club is a great chance to get in shape and meet a bunch of great guys and girls as well as get in the best shape of your life!"

Latin Dance

by, Michelle Esch

The Latin Dance Club teaches and performs various dances from Latino culture including salsa, bachata, and merengue. The club members performed at various times throughout the year, including a very successful showcase at the Multicultural Fair where they performed close to five dances. The club, while a very tight-knit group, welcome newcomers with open arms as they are all very happy and excited to share this part of the Latin culture with as many people as possible. The LDC will even come to the dorms to show residents how to dance during programs put on by the Resident Assistants.

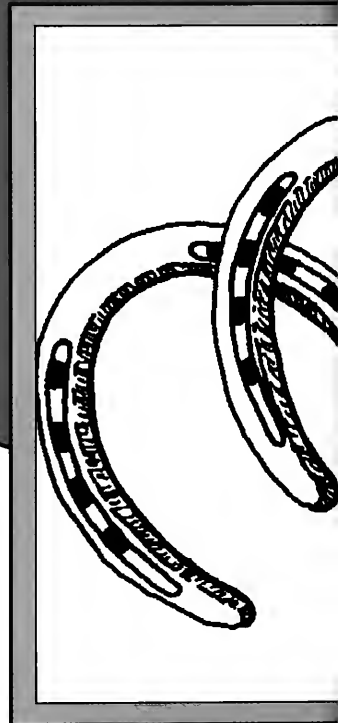

Cheerleading

by, Michelle Esch

The Mary Washington Cheerleading Team is a Division III member of the NCAA and a member of the Capital Athletic Conference (CAC). The cheerleading squad is made up of 12-20 women and men who cheer for both men's and women's basketball.

Congratulations for placing 3rd at the CAC Championships!!

Terrapins

by, Michelle Esch

This year, the UMW Terrapins have traveled across the country to continue to compete against the best teams in the nation. They have also preformed a significant amount of fundraising to compete in San Antonio Texas for both South Zone Regionals and the National Colligate Synchronized Swimming competition. At nationals Chelsea Moore received 12th in solo competition. In duets Dana Cadeken and Kelsey Voss received 23rd in duet competition, and Kristina Schrimshaw and Isabelle Marshall received 26th. Dana Cadeken, Chelsea Moore, Kelsey Voss received 16th in trin competition. Finally, Brittney Baker, Jessica Waldman, Maria Gannet, Dana Cadeken, Chelsea Moore, Kelsey Voss received 17th in team Competition. The UMW Terrapins have become a close-knit community through their time commitment and willingness to challenge themselves in synchronized swimming.

Hoofprints

by, Michelle Esch

The Hoofprints club is a club that has been around UMW for many years, since at least 1943. The club is for men and women who wish to ride horses for fun or for credit. The club teaches how to properly love and care for the large animals while riding at Hazelwild Farm, the barn of school's choosing. Although it does not partake in two week long trips to Skyline drive as it did in the 1940s, the club is still a wonderful arena for horse lovers.

Club Tennis

by, Michelle Esch

The Tennis Club at the University of Mary Washington will be fully dedicated to the teaching, practice, and spread of the sport of tennis throughout the campus. It is meant for anyone with a love for tennis, either watching it or playing it. Like the other clubs on campus, you do not have to be a superstar or even know the intricacies of the sport in order to join. UMW's tennis club is able to meet all year round because of UMW's fantastic indoor and outdoor courts.

Ultimate Frisbee

by, Michelle Esch

The Ultimate Frisbee program is meant to develop the ultimate frisbee program on campus and build intercollegiate bonds. There are two teams, men's and women's ultimate frisbee, and they can be seen practicing on Ball Circle in the Fall and Spring months. The Ultimate Players Assoc. website gives a lengthy description of Ultimate Frisbee, here is an excerpt, "Combining the non-stop movement and athletic endurance of soccer with the aerial passing skills of football, a game of Ultimate is played by two seven-player squads with a high-tech plastic disc on a field similar to football. The object of the game is to score by catching a pass in the opponents end zone." The game is played all over the U.S. and in more than 42 countries across the world.

Trek Club

by, Michelle Esch

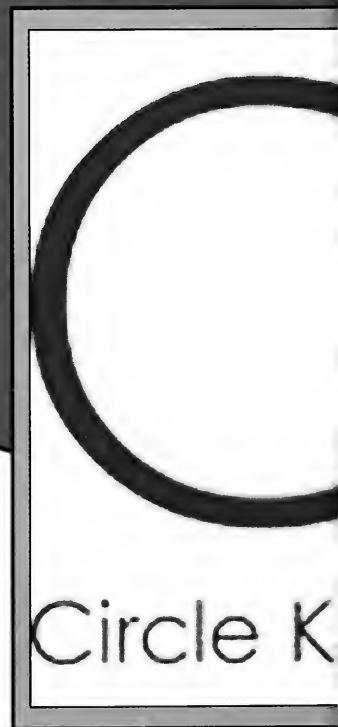

The purpose of the Trek Club is to provide outdoor opportunities to the students of UMW. Throughout the year, the students of the Trek Club will travel to outdoor venues across the state so that they can bike, canoe, hike, and enjoy the beauty of the outdoors. A few years ago, the group traveled to VA Beach to canoe in the ocean and every year they try to go skiing and snowboarding. Many opportunities are available with the Trek Club.

Model U.N.

by, Michelle Esch

The Model UN is a club dedicated to the discussion of international affairs. It is a long-time club on the Mary Washington campus and is always looking for new members. Please do not worry if you are not a political science or international affairs major, many of the members, and even officers, are not either. The club keeps up to date with the various goings-on in the world and discusses them at their meetings.

COAR

by, Kelly Mirales

COAR is a diverse group of students serving community needs through an active exchange of service and learning while continually striving to find solutions to problems that challenge the community. Any student, new or old, can volunteer with COAR. We are made up of 1 student director, 3 student staff members, a student Council, an Events Crew, and hundreds of general volunteers. COAR staff resides in the lower level of Seahawk Hall to help facilitate all service programs and activities. Our Council is made up of student leaders who head each of the COAR programs and serve as a liaison to the outside agencies. Our weekly council programs include everything from African Refugee Tutoring to Habitat for Humanity to Therapeutic Riding for children with special needs. Every year, COAR volunteers also participate in an Alternative Fall and Spring Break. The Events Crew is a group of students who help run our bigger events on campus for students and the community. COAR Annual events include events such as Into Pa Streetz, Haunted Helpers, the Holiday Gift Box Drive for Head Start, Charity Poker Tournament, Act Speak Build! Week, and the Community Spring Egg Hunt Festival.

by, Michelle Esch

Circle K International is a community service organization that focuses on service, leadership and fellowship. The UMW club participates with the national club by doing the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, Blood Drives, trips to the food bank and much more all on the Mary Wash campus. Other projects and events of CKI: Trick-or-Treating with COAR, Pillow Project, Kickball Tournament for the Boys and Girls Club, Awards Night, Lost in D.C., Sponsored Youth Night (SYN), Thanksgiving Dinner, Pumpkin Party, Valentine's Day Cookies, bake sales, car washes, Cotillion Coat Check, Restaurant Fliers and Sundae Sunday.

Swing Dance

by, Michelle Esch

The Swing Dance Club is dedicated to educating the community in the principles of Swing Dance by hosting weekly lessons, campus dances, and more. With their own Facebook group that is quite popular, the Swing Dance Club is a warm and open group to join. As their event description says:

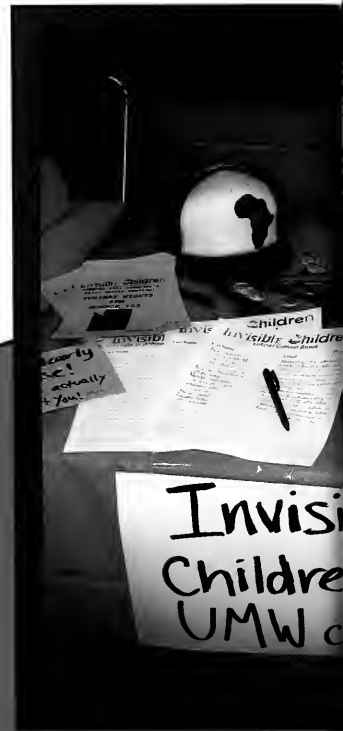

"Baby, baby, it looks like it's gonna hail, so come inside and let me teach ya how to jive and wail!

Hey ya cool cats and Zoot-suiters! This is a club for those of you who like to cut a rug, or even if you just like the sweet sounds of artists like Glenn Miller, Benny Goodman, Frank Sinatra, or Brian Setzer. So Daddy-O, let's boogie."

The SDC sponsors many dances on campus including a popular 1940's dance and they showcased two dances at the Multicultural Fair this spring.

Invisible Children

by, Kelly Mirales

The people of northern Uganda are caught in the middle of a civil war between their government and a rebel army. This rebel army terrorizes villages, kidnapping children and forcing them to be soldiers.

In 2006, three American filmmakers went to Africa and documented the horrors in Uganda. Since then they have founded Invisible Children Inc, a non-profit organization to raise awareness and try to encourage Americans to take action against these atrocities. Across America, there has been immense response by groups wanting to support this cause.

At Mary Washington, we have our own chapter of Invisible Children. The group helps educate those on campus about the tragedies, as well as fund raise. In the fall, they held a date auction, where they were able to raise thousands of dollars for programs like Schools for Schools and the Visible Child Scholarship Program. In the Spring, Invisible Children also hosted a dance to continue raising funds for this worthy cause.

Students Helping Honduras

by, Kelly Mirales

In 2005, Mary Washington student Shin Fujiyama found himself in Honduras and was moved by the hundred of children who were without adequate health care, housing, or education. When he returned to Mary Washington, he started Students Helping Honduras. Today, there are SHH chapters at campuses across the country.

Students spend the year doing a variety of activities to raise money for different causes in Honduras. Bake sales, socials, and the Spring volleyball tournament held on Ball circle are just some of the ways that SHH is able to raise money. This money is used for various things, such as buying supplies for schools, building homes for families, and even building education centers.

In addition to raising money to help the cause, SHH takes trips over breaks to Honduras, where members can actively help better Honduras. While down there, they help build homes, or work with children.

Mortar Board

by, Kelly Miralza

Mortar Board is a national honor society that recognizes college seniors for excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and service. Mortar Board members represent the top scholars and leaders on the campus. Mortar Board provides opportunities for continued leadership development, promotes service to colleges, and encourages lifelong contributions to the global community. Additionally Mortar Board offers numerous benefits and opportunities to its members.

Being chosen to be a member of Mortar Board is an honor that its members do not take lightly. Mortar Board is responsible for the Fall and Spring Blood Drives that help the Red Cross to save thousands of lives. Mortar Board also teamed with Giant Productions in the Spring to host Live Band Karaoke. Here students were able to win prizes for singing karaoke played by a live band. Meanwhile, Mortar Board fund raised by selling raffle tickets.

by, Kelly Miralza

S.E.E.D. stands for Students Educating And Empowering for Diversity. Students who are in S.E.E.D. work to educate and empower diversity at UMW. Throughout the year, they host several events ranging from their annual cross culture BBQ on Ball circle to Lunchtime Discussions.

The BBQ has been hosted annually for the past four years. S.E.E.D. invites several UMW clubs to participate in providing an afternoon of multicultural food and entertainment for students.

S.E.E.D. also hosts Lunchtime Discussions where students are invited to come with their lunches to discuss a variety of hot topics, from interracial dating to stereotypes in pop culture.

This year was the first year that Mary Washington gave students off for Martin Luther King Jr Day, and S.E.E.D. took the opportunity to host several events in celebration of Dr. King and the Civil Rights Movement. They hosted a Unity March from Jepson to Trinkle, sponsored an oratorical contest, and wrapped up with a showing of the film, "Bling" and discussion with Dean Rucker.

Rotaract is a club that strives to put others before themselves by doing great community service projects for people around the region, the nation, and in other countries. Rotaract has most notably helped the city of Fredericksburg and surrounding areas.

BOND

"Brothers of a New Direction (BOND) operates under the slogan "May we keep his flame burning; for we can form a community in which we can hear his story."

We provide a support system and serve as an outlet and forum for the discussion of political as well as personal problems affecting men of color as a whole. Through instilling a sense of brotherhood in our members, we strive to increase pride in our community while strengthening the presence and participation of men of color within every level of our community.

BOND co-sponsors a Step Show with Women of Color every spring." (Travis May)

BCM

Baptist Collegiate Missions is a club that seeks to make a difference for Christ through building community, dynamic worship, spiritual growth, and evangelistic outreach. Brenda Cessna (junior) said this about the club, "When I think about the BCM the first image that pops into my head is the friends who are there who have become family. The BCM is not just a building across from Chandler lot, it is a place where you can go to find a community of people who believe in Jesus Christ. As soon as you walk in the building, you can sense that something is different about this place. My roommate once told me she loved the way the people there interacted: like brothers and sisters. And that is just what we have become. We have become a family who is there for support of one another in all aspects of college life. Most importantly we have become a family who wants to grow as one, reach out to others, and help each and every person grow in their faith. The BCM is a community of believers that have become my family away from my family and my home away from home."

BSA

"The Black Student Association (BSA) is an active organization that serves to create a forum for students of all races to learn about the cultures and history of African-Americans. In our weekly meetings, we address contemporary issues affecting the African-American community, and educate our members about African-American facts through a number of means including engaging discussions, exciting games, and intriguing trivia. We create a welcoming atmosphere for students in an effort to yield positive learning experiences. Our events include Kwanza Celebration, Talent Show, and celebrations honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Dr. James Leonard Farmer Jr. During the spring, we also sponsor five consecutive days of events collectively known as BSA Week. This past year included a Gospel Extravaganza, Open Mic Night, and the much-anticipated BSA Game Night. We also co-sponsor keynote speakers during the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Week and Black History Month in February." (Charles Reed)

WOC

by, Kelly Mirales

Women Of Color is open to all women on the Mary Washington Campus who want to embrace and explore their cultural heritage.

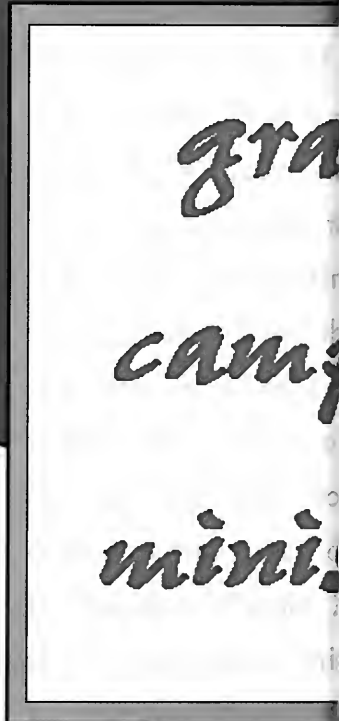

Every year, the Women of Color hosts the traditional Night of Elegance Dance. This dance is a fun way for the whole campus to experience new cultures, as the music played ranges from Latin to Bhangra. All different cultures are represented by the musical selection of the evening.

One of the other traditional campus activities that Women Of Color is active in hosting is the annual step show. This is a spectacular event where students compete for cash prizes by stepping.

The last major event that Women Of Color hosts is the annual Women Of Color week, which cross cultural unity of the Women on Mary Washington's campus.

ASA

by, Kelly Mirales

ASA stands for the Asian Student Association. The goal of the Asian Student Association is to promote the appreciation and understanding of Asia through social, educational, and cultural activities. The ASA is not limited to only Asian students, they do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, disability, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, sexual orientation, sex, or age. The ASA is made up of about 30 members.

The biggest event for the ASA was Asian Culture Week from November 10-15. The week was kicked off by a giveaway on Monday and a game night on Tuesday. Wednesday they brought in Beau Sia, a slam poet. Thursday was a sushi tutorial. Friday they held the Taste of Asia, which showcased Asian fashion and music in performances, as well as food. Finally, the week ended with the Bhangra Beat dance.

Asian Culture Week was a very successful way for the ASA to educate the rest of the campus about Asian Culture.

Grace Campus Ministries

by, Michelle Esch

The GCM is one of UMW's many religious groups on campus that has, just like the others, a very high participation rate by the students. Every week, GCM meets for church pick-up on Sundays at 9:30am for service which is at 10am; the Women's Community Group meets Mondays at 8pm and Thursdays at 6:30pm while the Men's Group meets Thursdays at 6:30pm. Their free Fellowship meal is Thursdays at 5pm but they do not stick to conventional foods, instead they travel around the world and sample from different cultures.

CCC

by Kelly Miralès

The Campus Christian Community is an ecumenical student ministry that is supported by the Methodist, Presbyterian, Lutheran, and Episcopal churches that was started at Mary Washington in the 1960s. The CCC welcomes students of all faiths who wish to connect with other students and share worship, fellowship and service to the community. Students in the CCC participate locally in a variety of mission and service projects throughout the year. They do any type of volunteer work, ranging from serving meals at the homeless shelter to helping with Habitat for Humanity.

Every Thursday, the CCC host table talks where they explore faith as well as raise awareness of community and global issues. These talks are followed by a dinner. Other weekly events include Girls' Group on Sundays, Guys' Group on Wednesdays, and Tea Time on Fridays. In addition to these weekly events, the CCC goes on weekend trips and retreats.

The CCC also published a monthly newsletter, The Good News, so members can stay updated on the plethora of events that the CCC is involved with.

BSU

by, Michelle Esch

The Baptist Student Union is a Christian fellowship which strives to minister to the needs of the Mary Washington college community as well as churches in the surrounding Fredericksburg area. In addition, BSU desires to take the love and Gospel Message of Jesus Christ out into the world around us. They invite anyone to come be a part of the fellowship as they seek to engage in community, discipleship, and outreach. The BSU is located on College Avenue across the street from the Chandler parking lot. It is open daily so that students can fellowship with one another, grow in their relationship with God, and study in a "home-like" environment.

LSA

by, Michelle Esch

The Latino Student Association (LSA) has a mission to provide students with opportunities to explore Spanish and Latin-American culture, language and history. In fulfilling our mission, we provide support for the Spanish and Latin-American community at the University of Mary Washington but also welcome anyone to participate in our organization regardless of race or ethnicity. We increase pride and cultural awareness among students by celebrating the diversity of the Spanish and Latin-American culture.

ISA

by, Michelle Esch

The Islamic Student Association's purpose is to promote Islamic awareness throughout the campus and open the student body to the diverse Muslim cultures around the world. Sponsoring an ISA month in February, the students held a Henna party where anyone that wanted to was able to get free Henna on their hands, feet, or necks; a calligraphy expert came in to show the students how calligraphy looks; and other speakers came in to share the Muslim experience with those that already knew, and those that were just learning.

JSA

by, Michelle Esch

The Jewish Student Association is an educational club celebrating cultural diversity, but concentrates on the Jewish culture. JSA spreads the awareness of the Jewish culture to the UMW community through various educational events, and by working with other organizations the JSA presents information alongside various groups. The group attends weekly meetings that travel to different places, both historical and fun, to keep a variety. They often experience different cultures together and always manage to either tie it back to the Jewish faith, or compare it to Judaism.

InterVarsity

by, Anne Elder

Meeting every Thursday in Jepson, InterVarsity (commonly referred to as IV) provides students with a comfortable, non-denominational setting to worship and ask questions that may have previously been unanswered. This year, a co-ed Justice Team was brought to the UMW chapter to help spread the Gospel by acting as Christian influences in daily life as well as putting forth efforts toward people in need both in the United States and abroad. The activities of IV go beyond weekly meetings, by contributing to several local charities, building a rapport with the community of Fredericksburg, and even extending their voices to senators in Washington with Abolition Senator Cards. Students on campus are able to witness the presence of IV, as members participated in weekly prayer walks, held their first campus-wide Hunger Banquet, and continue to answer questions from all inquiring minds. The club was able to show their many talents at the Rockbridge retreat in May, where they won the championship volleyball tournament against their rival, the University of Richmond. And let's not forget the excitement of the IV-sponsored Capture the Flag games!

One Note Stand

The One Note Stand is one of Mary Washington's co-ed a cappella groups. At the beginning of the year, they hold auditions for both men and women who like to sing. Throughout the semester they meet three times a week, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Sundays, to rehearse songs for their concerts. They have one major concert per semester. In November they had their fall concert. Students were charged $1 per ticket, and the proceeds all went to benefit VMI's Save the Music Foundation. The Spring Concert was at the end of April. Throughout the year, they also have several mini performances at admissions events, and other events on campus. In mid March, One Note Stand had a Spirit Night at Chick-Fil-A, where they performed and raised funds to support themselves.

Symfonics

Symfonics is one of UMW's oldest co-ed a cappella singing groups. They perform many times throughout the school year and often team up with other groups for events. On April 17, Symfonics joined with PRISM to close out the Day of Silence with a concert. $1 admission was charged at the door.

BellaCapella is UMW's only all female singing group. Their website says, "As UMW's premiere female a cappella group, we combine our love of music, insatiable thirst for attention, and our melodic voices to entertain anyone who will stand still long enough. Cause let's face it . . . girls just wanna have fun. O-O-O-Oh girls just-a-wanna have fun."

As one of UMW's singing groups, and the only co-ed chamber choir group on campus, Una Voce was in high demand throughout the academic year. The men and women performed at Parents Weekend in September most notably while also hosting their own concerts in conjunction with the Music Department shows and Holiday Spectacular. Over 20 men and women are part of this illustrious group that has charmed the campus for more than a few years.

PRISM

by, Alyssa Hoszy

People Representing Individuals of Sexual Minorities (PRISM) is an organization that aims to bring awareness to the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender community. Their goal is to create a safe and accepting environment on campus for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. PRISM meets weekly to discuss the clubs concerns and just to have fun! PRISM hosts multiple events throughout the year such as the annual drag show and the candle light vigil. At the Candle light vigil PRISM members honor those who have been victims of transphobia by lighting candles. The entire campus showed their support for the victims by signing the rock.

by, Kelly Mirales

G.A.L.L. stands for Guerrilla Art Liberation Lives, a club whose goal is to rescue the art from the glass case in which modern society has imprisoned it. They believe that the separation of art from its audience is detrimental to the pursuit of art itself. As a reaction to society, art should also elicit an immediate reaction from society. G.A.L.L. aims to create art that those who encounter it will not soon forget, rather than create art that will go down in history.

As a means of achieving this goal, G.A.L.L. has done several projects around campus this year. One major project was teaming up with the Ecology club for the light bulb exchange. The members of G.A.L.L. painted and then planted the old bulbs outside of Lee Hall. Another expression of Guerrilla Art was on April Fools Day, when the members of G.A.L.L. constructed a rubber band web across Palmieri Plaza. Throughout the year, they hosted several poetry slams during late night at the Nest. G.A.L.L. supports many other clubs, and aids in their activities. They helped COAR raise money for canned food, and also helped Class Council by hosting a pumpkin stabbing activity at Halloween.

The Gathering

by, Kelly Mirales

The Gathering began as an on-campus Bible Study with focus on building up leaders and reaching out to the community. This year their leadership felt called to begin something new in faith, ONE : deo pneumoa. ONE is the on-campus church which was started this year in order to provide an opportunity for students to worship corporately. The purpose of ONE is to promote unity between students, and allow them to work together as ONE body, with ONE faith for the glory of ONE God. The Gathering has continued to grow and provide several opportunities for students to get involved in Mary Washington activities, as well as put their faith in action.

The Gathering activities include partnering with the other Christian ministries on campus, Christmas caroling, and outreach game nights.

Biology Club

Biology is not just a class that students take at UMW. For many people, it is a passion. Outside of the classroom, many students can only study their books or go out and find biology in everyday life. For those people that have listened to the call of biology, they found their ways to the Biology Club. Professor Killian serves as the faculty advisor to the club which serves to provide a platform for discourse in all fields of biology. The club facilitates as a forum where students interested in biology can gather to share their interests.

Ecology Club

The Ecology Club is one of the most well known clubs on campus. They constantly advertise on the rock in effort to inform the campus of their mission, which is sustainability. The Eco Club meets weekly to discuss ways that students can make the campus a greener place. This year they worked with Campus Climate Change and the Virginia Climate Action Network to lead students in the movement towards clean energy. The Ecology Club provides its members with several opportunities to further their education on the sustainability movement by attending PowerShift, a nation-wide energy conference.

In order to benefit the campus, the Eco Club partnered with GALL for the light-bulb exchange, hosted RecycleMania, and had many green festivities for Earth Day. Most notably, they had tie dye and brought Pete Yarrow of Peter, Paul, and Mary for a benefit concert.

Mary Washington's Renaissance Club is made up of students who are interested in the Renaissance period. At their meetings, they make crafts reminiscent of the renaissance era including calligraphy work, embroidery, and chain mail. This year, they participated in the Mary Washicon, where they sold some of their handicrafts for benefit of the club.

Other than crafting the Renaissance Club hosts two major events throughout the year. The first is the Elizabethan Feast. This is a very popular event, which is catered to serve Elizabethan era food.

The other major event that the Renaissance Club hosted was the Masquerade Ball. Students were invited to attend this dance, which was hosted in the Red Room, and could get a deal to go from it to the 1940s Swing Dance that was being simultaneously hosted in the Great Hall. This was another popular event for the MWRC.

The Historic Preservation Club hosts three major events in the fall semester. All three educate students and the community about historic events. During Parent's Weekend, the Historic Preservation Club provide students and their families with an opportunity to take a tour of Downtown Fredericksburg.

The week before Halloween, the club holds their annual Ghost Walk. Tour guides from the group lead students and locals around downtown on a haunted tour.

The last major event hosted by the Historic Preservation Club is their annual Victorian Ball. Dance instructors and musicians are brought in to create the environment, and attendees can learn real Victorian dances to real Victorian music.

Volleyball

by, Michelle Esch

X-treme Volleyball Club provides alternative volleyball playing experiences in a non-competitive and stress relieving environment. Men and Women play together on Wednesdays around 9pm in Coolrick Gym after the UMW Women's team is finished practicing. Ranging from a few players to many, everyone is always in high spirits and ready to play. Many people who come to Volleyball Club are there to learn more about volleyball outside of the class environment. Come out and play even if you have no idea what you are doing!!

Commuting Students Assoc.

by, Michelle Esch

The purpose of the Commuting Students Association is to bring the commuters of UMW into the UMW atmosphere more. Many people feel that once they no longer live on campus and in a dorm, that they lose contact with the happenings of UMW. While this may be true, the CSA strives to provide outreach to those students living off campus with invitations to events, activities and more that they could miss out on. Also, certain areas on campus are supposedly meant for the Commuters of UMW.

WMWC

by, Michelle Esch

To promote local and national music through an internet based radio. On the radio, WMWC is local station 91.5 FM. This University radio station was not started on the internet or even with the aide of the internet, but instead in 1946, when UMW was still MWC and all female. The radio provided the ladies on campus with music of the year in their dormitories. Now, UMW students are able to listen in their cars or at their residences on campus and in the Fredericksburg area. Located next to the Washroom, the radio station is full of controls, old records and cds.

Eagle Bhangra

by, Michelle Esch

Eagle Bhangra contributes meaningfully to the diversity of experience at UMW by demonstrating through performances dance and dress of South and Central Asia.

Enigma Color Guard

by, Michelle Esch

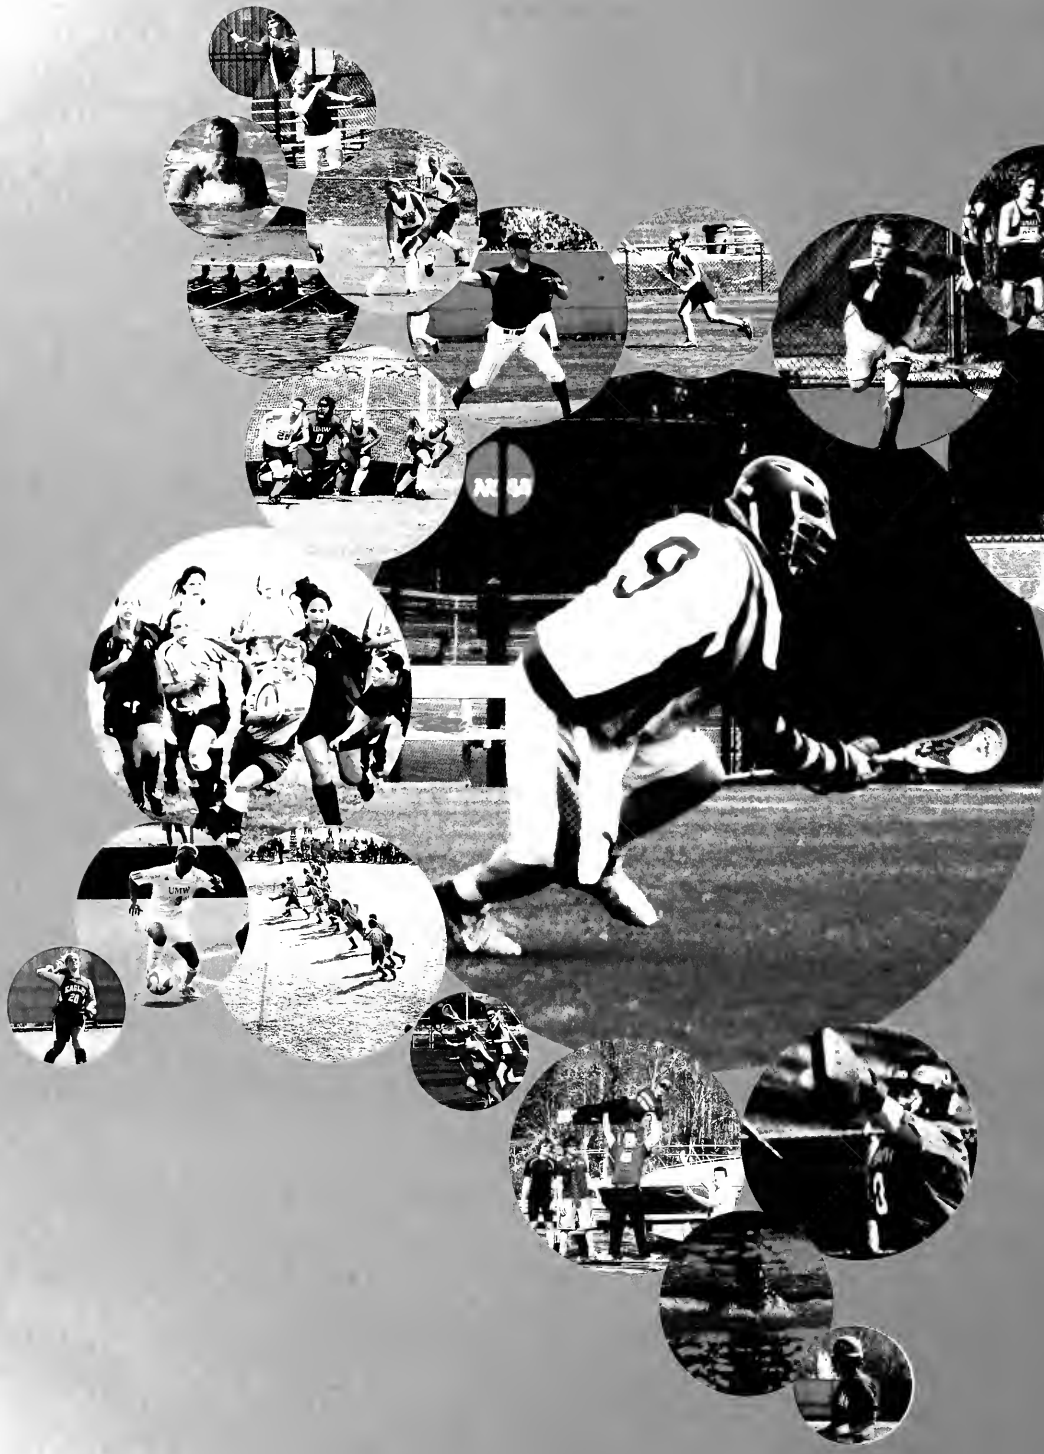

The Enigma Color Guard is UMW's color guard team that competes against other schools on a regular basis throughout the academic school year. Competing indoors, the team is put through a series of tests against other universities and colleges.

Fencing

by, Michelle Esch

Even though UMW does not have a fencing team, many people love the sport and its fast paced fun. The purpose of the Fencing Club is to provide basic instruction and equipment for the sport of fencing. On-campus practice and off-campus tournaments are scheduled regularly.

Sports

Cross Country

by Anne Elder

Racing across the finish line, the UMW Cross Country teams ended their season by running the course of the NCAA Division III South/Southeast Regional Championships in Seguin, Texas. The Mens Team came in 5th overall, with the Women in 6th place. For sophomore Hayley Sullivan, the championships brought her to the NCAA National Championships, where she placed 64th.

Prior to these championships, both teams placed second in the CAC Championships, which took place in Thornburg, VA, hosted by Mary Washington. Junior Frank DeVar was once again honored by the CAC, this time as the 2008 Runner of the Year, along with fellow runner Sullivan. DeVar and Sullivan were also recognized the week of October 21 as Runners of the Week. Also recognized by the CAC was freshman Justin Mullen, the CAC Rookie of the Year, and coach Stan Soper, who gained the title of Womens Coach of the Year.

Volleyball

by, Anne Elder

The Volleyball team made impressive strides this year to land themselves at the CAC Semifinals, against rival school Salisbury. Junior Anne Lutkenhaus and senior Kelley Heuber ended their season as members to the All-Capital Athletic Conference Volleyball Team, while freshman Katie Shifflett was named Rookie of the Year. There is no question these All-Star players will continue to bring victory to the Eagles in the years to come.

The season started off well for the girls this past August, where they won three out of four games at the Eastern Mennonite Tournament. The team went on to bring pride to UMW when they defeated Lynchburg 3-0 at the Homecoming game in October, which was also the team's "Dig Pink" fundraising match. The season was also a triumph for coach Dee Conway, who celebrated her 400th and 401st win with the team after the victories against Washington College and Albright College, respectively. The team ended their season with a record of 19-11.

Women's Rugby

by. Anne Elder

The UMW Women's Rugby club started in 1985 and has since become one of the most popular club sports at Mary Washington. The women's rugby team has once again fought in another competitive season as during both fall and spring semesters, the women play in games and tournaments typically on Saturdays. Vigorous practices are held three times a week on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from four to six in the evening. While the club isn't officially considered a sport in America, these girls aren't just messing around! The team often traveled to compete with other schools in the Virginia Rugby Union's Division II and did quite well. Congrats girls and good luck next year!!

Men's Rugby

by, Anne Elder & Michelle Esch

Congratulations Men's Rugby! This season was the first ever undefeated season with a 5-0-1 final tally! With every player having the chance to play since there are no cuts and no bench sitting the team ended the year as the #1 seed in the Ed Lee Cup in the Division II Men's Rugby Tournament. Before defeating VMI in the Championship Match with a 24-24 OT score, the men defeated VCU 21-0 in the semifinal match. An impressive season that required no experience from its members as most rugby players first play the game in college. A sociable but competitive sport, the men played several NCAA Division I schools, while the Virginia Rugby Union, UMW's regional league, frequently sends one team to the National Final Four. Again, congratulations men on an impressive season!

Field Hockey

by, Anne Elder

Making it all the way to the CAC Semifinals, the field hockey team had an impressive season. Sophomore forward Emma Jones, senior forward Alison Weckstein, and junior defender Jaci Marshall were named CAC Co-Players and Players of the Week, for the weeks of September 15, October 27, and October 20, respectively. The team also found victory 3-1 against York College at the first round of the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament.

Also bringing pride to the Eagles were Marshall and sophomore defender Heidi Sheehan, who were named to the All-South Region Team. Marshall and Sheehan were also named to the All-Capital Athletic Conference first team, while teammates Weckstein and Jones were named to the second. The team competed at St. Mary's College of MD for the CAC semifinals, where they fell 3-2. The team closed the overall season with a 13-6 record.

Men's Soccer

by Anne Elder

The men's soccer team finished this years season with an impressive 9-4-3 overall record and a 5-1-2 CAC record, taking them all the way to the CAC Semifinals against Salisbury. Unfortunately they were defeated 4-1 at the semifinal game, however, that didn't stop them from being recognized by the CAC. Senior defender David Rodriguez and sophomore forward T.L. Tutor were both named to the All-CAC Men's Soccer second team, with Rodriguez also named to the NSCAA All-Region Men's Soccer team. Tutor was also named CAC Co-Player of the Week for the week of September 22, as well as senior forward Darien Ruggles, was named CAC Co-Player of the Week for the week of October 6.

Coach Roy Gordon was also presented with the 67th National Soccer Coaches Association of America's Honor Award, after 32 seasons and a record of 364-196-45 at Mary Washington.

Women's Soccer

by. Anne Elder

The Women's Soccer team had another successful season, ending with an 8-6-5 overall record and a 4-1-3 CAC record. The team placed fifth in the CAC Tournament and made it to the CAC first round tournament, but were defeated 2-1 by York. The girls tied 1-1 in the rainy Homecoming game against Stevenson, yet went on to overcome Hood 4-1 at the regular season finale.

Senior midfielder Hannah Pearson was named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America/Adidas All-Mid Atlantic Region third team in early December. Pearson, along with teammate freshman defender Marianne Dubinsky, was also named to the All-CAC first team, with senior defender Lauren Harkness and freshman forward Ashley Olson being named to the second team. Congratulations girls!

Swimming

by, Anne Elder

The Mary Washington swimmers dove straight into victory this season, with the women's team ending their season undefeated 9-0, and the men finishing 8-1. The taste of victory was not foreign to the swimmers, who gained honors from the CAC as well as the NCAA. Taking home top honors was sophomore Sarah Crockett, who gained All-America honors after her performance at the NCAA Division III Championships. Also honored throughout the season were Stephen Clendenin (CAC Swimmer of the Year), Justin Anderson, Megan DeSmit (CAC Rookie of the Year), Tyler Henderson (CAC Rookie of the Year), and Emily Campbell. While Crockett and Clendenin represented the Eagles at the NCAA Championships, the women's team earned the CAC title for the 19th consecutive year and the men's team won the CAC title for their 9th consecutive year (15th time overall). Coach Matt Sellman was also honored with the CAC Men's Coach of the Year Award. Way to go Eagles!

This season the Eagles women's basketball team shot their way to the top, winning their third straight CAC championship and going on to compete in the NCAA Division III Tournament in New York. The CAC recognition did not end there for the team—seniors Katy Larson and Ashton Mitchell were both named to the All-Capital Athletic Conference team, while freshman Katie Wimmer was named CAC Rookie of the Year. Mitchell and Larson were also named to the Richmond Times Dispatch's All-State College Division Women's Basketball team.

At the game against rival Wesley, the team supported cancer research and Locks of Love, with volunteers donating their hair during halftime at this doubleheader. The game was a success both points and fundraising! This season was the fifth straight year where the girls have surpassed over 20 victories, ending their season with an impressive 23-6 overall record. Way to go girls!

Men's Basketball

by Anne Elder

Ending their season in the CAC Semifinals, the men's basketball team finished with a 14-12 overall record. Senior Matt Hale and junior Brandon Altmann were both named the All-Capital Athletic Conference team, while senior Andrew Cox along with Altmann were named CAC players of the week for the week of February 16. Altmann was also named to the second team All-Region by D3Hoops.com.

The team collaborated with the women's basketball team on February 18 for fundraising to support cancer research and Locks of Love against Wesley College. The men were successful and defeated Wesley at a close 91-90. The regular season for the men ended with a 77-56 lead over Stevenson University, after which they moved on to the first round of the CAC tournament, where they defeated York 83-76. Great job guys!

Softball

by. Anne Elder

Competing against schools all over the east coast, the Mary Washington softball team made it all the way to the CAC championships against rival Salisbury this season. While they may not have taken home the title, they were definitely able to prove their skill with their 25-16-1 record. The team even spread Eagle pride to Kissimmee, Florida over spring break, where they played against eight teams from all across America.

Earning top honors this season was senior Kristen Rowell, who was honored twice as the CAC Softball Player of the Week and also as the Atlantic Region Player of the Week. Rowell was also named to the All-CAC Softball Team with fellow teammate senior Cathy Hull, as well as the NFCA All-Region Team with junior shortstop Kaitlin Petrella. These ladies certainly prove that playing like a girl is not a bad thing! Way to go ladies!

Baseball

by, Anne Elder

The Mary Washington baseball team finished their season this year with a 15-17 overall record, with much individual recognition from the Capital Athletic Conference. Junior shortstop Seamus Bergen was named CAC Baseball Co-Player of the Week, after helping the Eagles win two of three games against Stevenson. Senior Andrew Cox was also named CAC Baseball Player of the Week after his amazing performance against North Carolina Wesley and was also honored as one of the 2009 UMW Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Cox, a right-handed pitcher, was also named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District Team and the first team of the All-Capital Athletic Conference Team, while junior teammates Bryan Quintana and Will Wright were named to the second team. Cox was also chosen as an all-region selection by the America Baseball Coaches Association, with while sophomore right fielder teammate Jackson Clement was given a spot in the region's Gold Glove team.

Another victory for the team this year was for coach Tom Sheridan, who joined the 500-win club, among some of the most elite coaches in the division. Congratulations boys!

Women's Tennis

by, Anne Elder

As the champions of their sixth consecutive CAC Championship, the Women's Tennis team had a lot to celebrate this season. In addition to reaching this honor, seven members of this NCAA Division III team won individual CAC honors. Senior Becky Morse-Karzen brought home the Player of the Year award for the second-straight year, while teammate Kathryn Schafer earned the Rookie of the Year award. Morse-Karzen was also honored by UMW as one of the UMW Scholar-Athletes of the Year. Also included in these honors was coach Patrick Catullo, who was recognized as the CAC Coach of the Year after bringing the Eagles to their sixth conference championship.

Traveling to Ohio, Minnesota, and Atlanta this season, these Eagles served schools from all over the country, ranking as high as seventh in the nation. Awesome job ladies!

Men's Tennis

by: Anne Elder

The men's tennis team ended the 2008-2009 season with a 18-11 record, ranked 17th in the nation, brought home a CAC championship as well as reaching the NCAA Tournament. Twice senior Randy Loden gained the title of CAC Player of the Week, shortly followed by teammate senior John James later in the season. James went on to be named the CAC's Men's Tennis Player of the Year. Also recognized was coach Todd Helbling, who was named Coach of the Year for the sixth year since 2002.

The men traveled to Minnesota to compete in the annual ITA Indoor National Championships, where they played against some of the top-ranked schools in the nation. From there they returned to the east coast, where they served up some heavy competition against schools from Division I and Division III. Awesome job boys!

Equestrian

by, Anne Elder

At Hazelwild Farm, the UMW riders are known for more than just their graceful gait. As a part of Region I, Zone IV of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, the riders galloped and trotted to earn the regional championship for the third consecutive year. Through many first- and second-place wins during the season, the riders have proved themselves as one of the top equestrian teams in the nation, finishing in 11th place out of 26 in the Holiday Tournament of Champions in Painesville, Ohio.

This year, senior Jessica Van Brocklin earned the individual high point championship, finishing ninth in the Cacchione Cup. She placed seventh in the Individual Open Equitation Over Fences at the 2009 IHSA National Championship, with teammate Shannon Brown placing third in the Advanced Walk Trot Canter in the same competition (Clint Often). Way to go riders!

Rowing

by Anne Elder

Early in the season, the UMW rowing team became a charter member of the newly formed Mid-Atlantic Rowing Conference, along with eight other NCAA Division III schools. From there, the teams proceeded to win the first MARC Championship, with 35 total points.

Freshman Connor Murphy and senior Sebastian Watt of the men's team and junior Karolyn Milton and sophomore Stephanie Lefferts of the women's were all recognized as all-conference selections for the Eagles. Marielle Gibbons was also honored, with academic conference honors. Gibbons, along with senior Julie Milam, was named to the CRCA national scholar-athlete team (Clint Often).

After an exciting season with many championship wins, the UMW rowing team continues to earn their place as one of the top rowing programs in the nation. Awesome job rowers!

Women's Lacrosse

by Anne Elder

With an overall record of 14-8, the women's lacrosse team brought several victories to Mary Washington, reaching the NCAA Tournament second round. Early in the season, coach Dana Hall won her 200th career lacrosse victory with a 19-0 win against Hood. Freshman attacker Catherine Kennedy earned several honors, including the National Division III Rookie of the Year by womenslacrosse.com, as well as the CAC Rookie of the Year. Kennedy, along with freshman attacker Allie Kimmelman and senior defense Emily Callugi, was named to the first team of the All-Chesapeake Region, with freshman midfielder Jenny Atman and sophomore attacker Kaite Wallis named to the second. Kennedy and Kimmelman were named All-Americans by the IWFLCA, while Kate Tarr won the CAC Unsung Hero Award and Ashley Scutari earned the CAC nomination for the NCAA Sportsmanship Award. Congratulations on an impressive season ladies!

Men's Lacrosse

by. Anne Elder

Opening the season with votes in the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association preseason poll, the men's lacrosse team was in good company, with #1 ranked Salisbury and #8 Stevenson also receiving votes. Boasting an 8-7 overall record for the season, the team reached the CAC Tournament, falling to Salisbury in the first round.

The senior Eagles this year saw the most number of wins for their class, as well as the highest win total since UMW won nine contests in 2005 (Clint Often). Sophomore goalkeeper Ryan Kleman gained attention from the CAC earning the title of CAC Player of the Week, recording 32 saves against SUNY-Plattsburgh and Randolph-Macon. Senior Charlie White helped the South team garner victory at the USILA North/South Senior All-Star game, scoring two goals for the South. Congratulations boys, we look forward to seeing what you accomplish next season!

Track and Field

by. Anne Elder

This year, both Men's and Women's Track and Field saw many records broken and many athletes awarded with top honors. The Men's team brought an All-American performance by senior Justin German in the high jump at the NCAA Division III Indoor National Championships. German went on to become the co-winner of the UMW Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year, became the second men's indoor All-American in the program in as many years and the first to gain national honors in the high jump since 2003. German missed out on nationals by less than an inch in his final jump.

The Women's team has as much to brag about as the Men's, with their 16th consecutive CAC crown under CAC Coach of the Year, Stan Soper. Mae Winchester, senior, was invited to the NCAA Championships for the second straight year in the 400m hurdles where she placed third in the heat but did not advance to the finals. Brittany Horrigan, freshman, set a new school record in javelin replacing the 25 year mark; following this, Horrigan broke her own record the next weekend; the next weekend, she once again broke her record at the CAC Championships. Finally, Horrigan broke her record for the fourth time with a NCAA provisional qualifying throw of 127', 1".

Many runners, eventers, hurdlers and jumpers made record breaking news this year as UMW Track and Field continues to be ranked high in Division III sports. Congrats and great work everyone!

*We're graduating, and we know
Our lives will be different and new;
We're going out into the world,
Our goals and dreams to pursue.*

*But one thing will never, ever change,
As we go our separate ways;
The friends we've made in school will be
Our friends for all our days.*

*The special ties and attachments we've made,
These bonds will never be broken;
We'll continue to feel that special bond,
Though words may not be spoken.*

*So it's not "goodbye," but rather "farewell;"
I'll see you again, my friend.
Your friendship means a lot to me,
And it will never end.*

How does a child become the one that inspires her elders?
 How can one person change the world?
 How can one family be so blessed?
 From a life that brings so much Words, whether written here or spoken forever will never be enough...
 We thank the Lord for such a gift

God Bless you Nicole
 We love you -
 Mom & Dad

Katelynn

Dear Kate,

As you embark upon the road ahead, may you reccall all the fond memories of friends and faculty alike and savor with pride all of your wonderful achievements. May the road ahead be paved with an abundance of personal and professional succedd and may you continue to experience the true gift of love, good friends and family wherever you go. You are our sweetest treasure and we love you and are so very proud of the young woman you have become.
CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR GRADUATION! With all our love, Mom and Dad, Michael and Carrie and Chris and Janci.

Dear Beth,

Four years sounds like a long time, until the years are suddenly past - treasure the memories! You have worked hard and we are so proud of you. Congratulations! God bless you as you move on to Paula, we are proud of you and your accomplishments over the past four years. You have learned, you have grown, and you have contributed. Stay true to yourself and your values; you will never forget. We love you. May God Bless your Graduation! Mom and Dad; Danielle and Matthew Olson.

Finally! What took you so long?! Just kidding, Poh-la. :) I love you a lot, and for all the years you heard me say you're a loser, well, guess what? I guess I was wrong...just kidding! It was only meant as food for fuel because I know you are a brilliant, capable, driven young lady who will do well in whatever you are most passionate. As Cicero said, "The Life given us by nature is short but the memory of a life well spend is eternal." I only have a few years on you, but this is my advice: Be well, do good, and work to find blessings in your life. It's too short to do otherwise. Love you and am proud of you. Congratulations!

Dear Betsy,

It's hard to believe that the little red-haired girl in a pink dress on her very first day of school has grown into such a lovely young woman on the brink of her new adventure. We can't tell you enough how proud we are of you, of the things you've accomplished, the strength you've shown through adversity, and how you've proved that you are ready to take on the world.

You've made some wonderful friends, have had a wonderful time competing for UMW on the crew team, and have discovered talents you didn't know you had. Your four years at Mary Wash have flown by and I hope the memories will make you smile as you begin the next stage of your life.

We love you. Love, Mom, Dad, Cameron, and Susie (and Barney too)

Kelly,

Four years ago you left home to begin another chapter of your life. You have received a wonderful education both in and out of the classroom. The places you have been and the sights you have seen have been incredible. As you graduate may your journey continue to be great, and the next chapter be as exciting. Congratulations. We are so proud of you.

Leighton, we are so proud of you. You deserve this and so much more. We love you and can't wait to see where you end up in your chosen career. Love, your family.

Dear Jillian,

The years have gone by so quickly. First it was preschool, then high school and now it is college graduation. And you still have your blankie! Remember that the future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams. Dream big, baby girl...The world is waiting for you and know that the love of your family will always be with you, just like the lyrics to the dance you choreographed this year. You have given us so much joy in our lives in everything you do and we are very proud of you today and always.

Love, Mom, Dad, Jen, Thomas and always Shannon (and the puparoots!)

*Today is your day,
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!*

*You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.*

*You'll look up and down streets. Look 'em over with care.
About some you will say, "I don't choose to go there."
With your head full of brains, and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down any not-so-good street.*

*And you may not find any you'll want to go down.
In that case, of course,
you'll head straight out of town.*

It's opener there in the wide open air.

*Out there things can happen and frequently do
to people as brainy
and footsy as you.*

*And when things start to happen,
don't worry. Don't stew.
Just go right along.
You'll start happening too.*

OH!
THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

PICTURES, THOUGHTS OR IDEAS

A black and white photograph of a brick building, likely a school, with a large tree in the background and bushes in the foreground. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Another year has come and gone at Mary Washington. Many students walked away saying it was their best year yet, others vow to make the next year better. All that matters is that the students promise to love the school as long as they attend classes on the picturesque campus. Who knows what exciting things will come in the Fall and Spring. Maybe another Presidential visit, probably more concerts, definitely more fun. 2008-2009 was great, what about 2009-2010?

Theme: The theme fluidity was chosen for the ninety-sixth volume of The Battlefield by co-Editors in Chief Michelle Eseh and Kat Dickinson to reflect how the University of Mary Washington is ever changing through motion. In order to carry the theme throughout the book, each spread contains circles because as the University grows in an outward motion from the center, it becomes bigger and better; we are "Staying small, Thinking large" (Dean Cedric Rucker, August 2008). Publishing: The Battlefield was published by Walsworth Yearbooks, 306 N. Kansas Avenue, Marechal, Missouri 64658. Mindy Sayre served as our account representative while Brian Flamm served as our sales representative. The press run was 2,000 copies, each with 320 full-color pages printed with CMYK process. Endsheets and Cover: Endsheets are printed with a laser cut printer into the shape of the UMW flying eagle, and were designed by co-Editors Michelle Eseh and Kat Dickinson. The cover was designed by co-Editors Eseh and Dickinson with the help of Walsworth designer, Jamie Byers. The text is printed using silver hot foil. Hardware and software: The book was produced using the Walsworth Yearbooks Online Design program by four staff members using their personal computers. Co-Editor Kat Dickinson used a Compaq laptop provided by Walsworth Yearbooks, while co-Editor Michelle Eseh used a Dell desktop computer, also provided by Walsworth. Adobe Photoshop Elements was used in order to crop and edit photos. Advertisements: Senior Ads were sold to parents at the prices of $35 for an eighth of a page, $65 for a fourth, $125 for a half, and $250 for a full page. Parents received notification of ad sales through the mail. Ads were designed according to parents' specifications. Typography: AWPCBelinda (Seniors), AWPCYellowjacket (Sports), AWPCBerkley (Student Life and CGPS), AWPCChelsea (Page names), AWPCIronMaiden (all text), and AWPCDnooze (Clubs and Dividers). Photography: Underclassmen photos were provided by the University ID Center and were cropped and placed by co-Editor in Chief Michelle Eseh. Faculty photos were also cropped and placed by Eseh and were provided by the Office of News and Public Information. Senior portraits were taken by appointment with Candid Color Photography, 11010 Bacon Race Road, Woodbridge, Virginia 22192. Seniors were notified of available photo dates through the mail, email announcements and flyers placed around campus. The photos were then cropped and placed by co-Editor in Chief Kat Dickinson. Sports photographs were taken by Clint Olsen. Writing and design: All body copy and headlines were written by staff members. Dividers and section layouts were designed by Eseh and Dickinson. The title page, opening and closing were designed by co-Editor in Chief Michelle Eseh. Distribution: The 2009 Battlefield was distributed in fall 2009. Books were also mailed to Seniors' permanent addresses that were on file with the administration. Funding for the yearbook was provided by the OS&CS Finance Committee and revenue earned from Senior Ads. Contact: The Battlefield office is located in Seacobeek Hall, Room 107, 1301 College Avenue, Fredericksburg, Virginia 22401 or available at battlefield@umw.edu. No portion of the yearbook may be reprinted or reproduced in any way without the express consent of the co-Editors in Chief.
